Population growth of Italy over the last 50 years

The following map shows the country of Italy. The next few slides will give an overview of what the population of Italy has done since the 1950’s.
1951 the population of Italy was roughly 50.6 million people

Birth Rate was 18.2
Death Rate was 10.2
Median Age was 29.2
Population in 2012 is roughly 61 million. Italy’s population is projected to increase slightly over the next 25 years, but is expected to be back to its level today of 61 million by the year 2060.

Birth Rate 9.06
Death Rate 9.93
Median Age 43.8
Where people live in Italy

The population is sparsely populated throughout the country. The most people live in the city of Rome, followed by Milan, and finely Naples.

Rome’s Population 3.4 million
Milan’s Population 3 million
Naples Population 2.3 million

If you look at the map you can see that Rome and Naples are along the Mediterranean sea and Milan is by a main river that flows into the Adriatic sea.
Interesting facts about Italy

Italy doesn’t have a national Religion

68% of Italy’s population lives in Urban areas.

The literacy rate in Italy is 98.4

Italy’s GDP is at 1.85 trillion

National Unemployment rate is 8.4 %

Italy is slightly larger than Arizona and is a long peninsular shaped like a boot